Dear Families,

Another busy week full of practising our songs for the Harvest Festival next week, learning our new sounds, enjoying dressing up in role play costumes and riding our balance bikes – the helmets arrived this week! It's been so lovely watching the children play on them at lunchtimes, especially with the weather being so nice towards the end of the week. As we're outside playing, pheasants strut pass on the field that runs alongside the MUGA and we are reminded again how lucky we are to have such a super school in the most beautiful setting. You will have probably noticed the green rubber crumb surface that was laid yesterday and looks brilliant. The children had a great time watching it being laid:

Photographs just like these and children's work are being uploaded to Twitter all the time so please do follow @HenhurstRidge

We're very much looking forward to welcoming you next week for two events: Parents' Consultation (you should now have had a text with your appointment time) and our Harvest Festival. As mentioned in the letter about Parent Consultation, please do your best to try and find child care for your child during this time so that you are able to fully engage in the meeting. We appreciate that those appointments directly after school are more difficult to accommodate this so myself and Mrs Dennis will help look after children in this instance.

Apologies for any confusion caused when the Harvest Festival date was changed a few weeks ago. It is on Wednesday 24th October at 2:30pm. The children are very excited to show you what they have been learning and are very enthusiastic during rehearsals. I expect they may be a little shyer on the day but we will do our best to wow you with all that they have learnt in the very short time they have been at school. Please send any non-perishable donations in any time next week and we will make a lovely harvest display with it before sending it to the YMCA after the event.

After half term, we will be hosting our first Macmillan Coffee morning on Friday 9th November. Please do invite friends and family to this event. There will be an opportunity to tour the building as we will have full occupancy and then we will have a chance to get together, have a cup of coffee and cake and raise some money for a fabulous cause. Please do support it.
